

The following is a copy of the memo from Ellen Brantlinger, Chair of the Lecture Series Committee provided as an annual report to the Policy Council on 4/24/02.

To: Policy Council
From: Ellen Brantlinger
Re: Annual 2001-2002 Report of the Lecture Series Committee

Two speakers gave talks in the Beatrice S. and David I. Miller Lecture Series:

Fall Speaker:           Wednesday, October 24, 2001
                              5:15-6:15 pm
                              School of Education Auditorium

Nancy H. Hornberger, Professor of Education and Director of Educational Linguistics, Graduate School of Education, University of Pennsylvania.

Multilingual Language Policies and the Continua of Biliteracy: An Ecological Approach

Spring Speaker:       Friday, April 11, 2002
                              7:30 pm
                              School of Education Auditorium

Kenneth A. Strike, Professor, Education Policy and Leadership, University of Maryland.

Community, the Missing Element in School Reform: Why Schools Should be More Like Congregations Than Banks

Additional Panel*:     Thursday, February 28, 2002
                              4 pm
                              School of Education Auditorium

How Disability Studies Can Inform Educators

Rosemary Garland Thomson, Emory University
Integrating Disability Studies Into the Humanities

Philip Ferguson, University of Missouri at St. Louis
Integrating Disability Studies Into the Social Sciences

Scot Danforth, University of Missouri at St Louis
Integrating Disability Studies In the Field of Special Education: Opportunities and Obstacles

Moderator: Donald Wells, Ph.D. Candidate in School Psychology

*Paid for accommodations for two days for Danforth and Ferguson.

2002-2003: Two Speakers Arranged: Yvonna Lincoln and William Pinar.